

6516208708.txt

Please do not stop XM satellite radio from providing its unique services such as instant traffic and weather!

I pay for my satellite radio service every month and should be able to receive the programming that I want. I don't understand why the NAB should be able to control what I hear.

Satellite radio is attracting subscribers because it offers a unique product that is worth the money. Let the market decide what services are available!